OBJECTION HANDLING V2 – QUICK REFERENCE

=====

RULES:

- Do not argue
- Do not over-explain
- Clarify → Normalize → Redirect → Decide
- Silence is your friend

1) “I’M JUST LOOKING / GATHERING INFO”

→ “That makes sense — most people start there.
Can I ask, when you started looking,
was it more about cost, coverage,
or just understanding how this works?”

“I don’t want to make a decision today.”

→ “I wouldn’t expect you to make a final decision today.
The only thing we’re deciding is whether it makes sense to see what you qualify for.
Would that be okay?”

2) MONEY / BUDGET OBJECTIONS

“I’m on a fixed income.”

→ “I hear that — and that’s exactly why we keep this simple.
The goal isn’t to stretch your budget,
it’s to find something that fits comfortably or not do it at all.”

→ Follow-up:
“What monthly amount would still feel comfortable?”

“That sounds like too much.”

→ “That’s helpful to know.
Is it the monthly amount itself,
or the coverage level we’re talking about?”

3) TRUST / SKEPTICISM

“I don’t trust insurance companies.”

→ “I get that — most people don’t until they see how it actually works.
That’s why nothing moves forward unless it makes sense to you after underwriting.”

“How do I know this is legit?”

→ “That’s a fair question.
What usually helps is walking through the process step by step and letting you decide before anything is finalized.”

4) APPLICATION FEAR (MOST IMPORTANT)

“I don’t want to get locked into anything.”

→ “That’s exactly why we start with an application — not a commitment.
It just gives us information.
If something doesn’t look right, we stop.”

“What if I get declined?”

→ “Then nothing bad happens.
We simply know,
and we pivot to another option or decide not to move forward at all.”

5) ‘I NEED TO THINK ABOUT IT’

“I want to think about it.”

→ “That makes sense.
What part would you like to think through —
the cost, the company,
or just the process?”

→ Redirect:
“Would it make sense to at least see what underwriting says before deciding no?”

6) FAMILY / SPOUSE

“I need to talk to my spouse / kids.”

→ “That’s understandable.
Would it help if we at least knew what you qualify for so the conversation is clearer?”

7) LAST-SECOND STALLS

“Can you call me back?”

→ “I can —
before I do,
what would you like to have clarity on when we talk again?”

THE ONLY 4 SENTENCES YOU MUST KNOW

1. “That makes sense.”
2. “Can I ask what specifically concerns you?”
3. “Nothing moves forward unless it makes sense to you.”
4. “Does it make sense to at least see what underwriting says?”

CARRIER-SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS (ADD-ON)

RULE:

- You are not selling the carrier
- You are guiding the process
- Carrier = underwriting fit, not brand debate

1) “I’VE NEVER HEARD OF THAT COMPANY”

→ “That’s very common.
Most people haven’t — and that’s okay.

What matters more than the name is how the policy is structured and how underwriting treats your situation.”

→ Redirect:
“This is simply the best first fit
based on what you shared.
If it doesn’t come back clean,
we pivot.”

2) “WHY NOT A BIG NAME COMPANY?”

→ “Big-name companies are great when someone fits their underwriting perfectly.

In your situation,
this carrier is usually more flexible and more competitive — which is why we start here.”

→ Redirect:

“The goal isn’t the biggest name —
it’s the best outcome.”

3) “WHY THIS COMPANY?”

→ “Good question.

Based on your age, health, and budget, this carrier tends to be the fairest and most straightforward.”

→ Redirect:

“If that changes,
we adjust — nothing is locked in.”

4) “IS THIS COMPANY LEGIT?”

→ “Yes.

They’re a regulated insurance company and the policy is backed by the state.

What matters most is what underwriting offers and whether it makes sense to you.”

(Do NOT say “state approved”)

5) “WHAT IF THEY DON’T PAY?”

→ “That’s a fair concern.

Life insurance policies are legal contracts —
they pay based on the policy terms.

That’s why we keep this simple and clearly defined.”

→ Redirect:

“We don’t move forward
unless you’re comfortable with it.”

6) “CAN WE TRY A DIFFERENT COMPANY?”

→ “We absolutely can.

The reason we start here is because it gives us
the cleanest first look.

If you’d rather start somewhere else, we can —
it just may change the outcome or cost.”

(Pause — let them choose)

7) “I WANT TO SHOP AROUND”

→ “That makes sense.

The quickest way to do that is to see what underwriting says here first.

Once we have that,
you'll have something concrete to compare against."

8) "WHY NOT MUTUAL OF OMAHA / AIG / ETC.?"

→ "Those are solid companies.
The reason I didn't start there is simply fit.

Based on what you shared,
this option usually comes back cleaner.
If not, those are next on the list."

KEY CARRIER RESET LINE (MEMORIZE)

"We're not choosing a company today — we're choosing a starting point."
